

EPA approves $3bn Collie urea plant

■ The environmental watchdog has conditionally recommended the development of the $3 billion Collie urea operation by private company Perdaman Chemicals and Fertilisers. EPA chairman Paul Vogel said the urea plant was unlikely to compromise the watchdog's objectives, should recommended conditions be properly met.